Create & Craft Series: Cricut Cardmaking

Thursday, December 3 at 6 p.m.

What better way to wish a loved one happy holidays than with a handmade card! Join us for a short demonstration, followed by a greeting card creation.

Wooden Holiday Gnome Craft with Beth Verblaauw

Saturday, December 5 at 11 a.m.

Join Beth as she teaches us how to make this festive gnome using wood, paint, and the holiday spirit! Perfect for decorating your home this winter. Gnomes are traditionally believed to bring good fortune, wealth, and blessings of abundance to households.

Chill at the library with your gnomies as we get our craft on!

Family Gingerbread Workshop

Tuesday, December 8 at 5:30 p.m.

Get into the holiday spirit with our Family Gingerbread House Challenge! Gather the whole family for a festive, creative afternoon of architectural fun. To help you get started right away, a basic house structure will already be built for eah family. From there, the sky is the limit - use our structural supplies to add extra levels and stories, or focus on decorating your sweet masterpiece with a colorful variety of candies and icing. All supplies are provided by the library - just bring your imagination and teamwork!

Winter Holidays on the Cello with Alex Prizgintas

Wednesday, December 9 at 6 p.m.

Comprised of seasonal, Christmas, and Hanukkah selections, there is a little bit of something for everyone in Alex Prizgintas's holiday show on his electric cello. With jazz, rock, klezmer, and traditional styles, this program offers a wide palette for the discerning listener. From "Most Wonderful Time of the Year" and "The First Noel" to "Ma'oz Tzur" and "Hava Nagila", Alex works to give a "show" that offers more give-and-take with the audience while delivering bits of information revealing some of the background behind the melodies and the melody makers.

Registration is required for all programs.
